Fishing for Pike with the Grizzly Hackle Crew

Matt Bryn, Retail Manager, Grizzly Hackle

Matt is a native of Missoula, MT. His love of the outdoors started at birth as he was always fishing and hunting with his dad. Matt didn't watch cartoons or play video games as a kid – he wanted to be outside! After he graduated from the University of Montana –Western in Dillon, he became a full time fisherman guiding the rivers of SW Montana. Although Matt is mostly done guiding except for a few special requests, his love of fly fishing has kept him in the business. Matt's biggest passion in life is big game hunting for deer and elk. Besides his corny jokes, he's a goofy ice fisherman drilling holes on a frozen lake in the winter. Matt is in his 6th year at Grizzly Hackle as Retail Manager.

Rick Marcum, Outfitting Manager, Grizzly Hackle

Rick grew up fishing for bass and bluegill in the Midwest. He caught his first big bass at age 7 and it was all downhill from there. All he ever thought about was fishing. In college his roommate ended up being a fly fishing guide from Libby, MT. He introduced Rick to fly fishing for trout and it didn't take long for him to get addicted to fly fishing! Since then he actively pursues other species on a fly rod. Rick has been the Outfitting Manager at the Grizzly Hackle since 2012.
